

Bylaws of the First United Church of Christ, Congregational in Milford, Connecticut

Adopted at annual meeting, January 26, 1997

Amended March 11, 2001

Amended January 27, 2013

ARTICLE I NAME

The name of this Church shall be The First United Church of Christ, Congregational in Milford, Connecticut.

ARTICLE II MISSION

The avowed purpose of this church shall be to worship God, to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ, and to celebrate the Sacraments; to realize Christian fellowship and unity within this church and the Church Universal; to render loving service toward all people; and to strive for righteousness, justice and peace.

ARTICLE III FAITH AND COVENANT

Faith

This Church acknowledges as its sole Head, Our Savior, Jesus Christ, the Son of God. It acknowledges as brothers and sisters in Christ all who share in this confession. It looks to the Word of God in the Scriptures, and to the presence and power of the Holy Spirit, to prosper its creative and redemptive work in the world. It claims as its own, the faith of the historic Church expressed in the ancient creeds and reclaimed in the basic insights of the Protestant Reformers. It affirms the responsibility of the Church in each generation to make this faith its own. In accordance with the teaching of our Lord and the practice prevailing among evangelical Christians, it recognizes two Sacraments: Baptism and the Lord's Supper or Holy Communion.

The following Statement of Faith of the United Church of Christ is not a test but an expression of the spirit in which the church interprets the Word of God.

We believe in you, O God, eternal Spirit, God of our Savior Jesus Christ, and Our God, and to your deeds we testify:

You call the worlds into being, create persons in your own image, and set before each one the ways of life and death.

You seek in holy love to save all people from aimlessness and sin.

You judge people and nations by your righteous will declared through the prophets and apostles.

In Jesus Christ, the man of Nazareth, our crucified and risen Savior, you have come to us and shared our common lot, conquering sin and death and reconciling the world to yourself.

You bestow upon us your Holy Spirit, creating and renewing the church of Jesus Christ, binding in covenant faithful people of all ages, tongues, and races.

You call us into your church to accept the cost and joy of discipleship, to be your servants in the service of others, to proclaim the gospel to all the world and resist the powers of evil, to share in Christ's baptism and eat at his table, to join him in his passion and victory.

You promise to all who trust you forgiveness of sins and fullness of grace, courage in the struggle for justice and peace, your presence in trial and rejoicing, and eternal life in your realm which has no end.

Blessing and honor, glory and power be unto you. Amen.

Covenant

We covenant one with another to seek and respond to the Word and the will of God. We shall walk together in the ways of the Lord, made known and to be made known to us. We hold it to be our mission to worship God, to strive for truth, justice and peace, to attend the services of this Church, observe its sacraments, share in its work, support its benevolences and endeavor to make it a faithful body of Christians. As did our forebearers, we depend on the Holy Spirit to lead and empower us. We work and pray for the coming of the Kingdom of God, and we look with faith to the triumph of righteousness and eternal life.

ARTICLE IV POLITY

The government of this Church is vested in its members, who exercise the right of control in all its affairs, subject, however, to Laws of the State of Connecticut relating to corporations not for profit or ecclesiastical corporations.

This Church shall be a part of the United Church of Christ and it shall sustain that relationship to the United Church of Christ described in those portions of the Constitution and By Laws of the United Church of Christ adopted July 4, 1961, relating to local Churches. Re: Article IV, Section 15 as follows:

“The autonomy of the local Church is inherent and modifiable only by its own action. Nothing in this Constitution and Bylaws of the United Church of Christ shall destroy or limit the right of each local Church to continue to operate in the way customary to it; nor shall be construed as giving to the General Synod, or to any Conference or Association now, or at any future time, the power to abridge or impair the autonomy of any local Church in the management of its own affairs, which affairs include, but are not limited to, the right to retain or secure its own charter and name; to adopt its own constitution and bylaws; to formulate its own covenants and confessions of faith; to dismissal; to call or dismiss its pastor or pastors by such procedure as it shall determine; to acquire, own, manage and dispose of property and funds; to control its own benevolence; and to withdraw by its own decision from the United Church of Christ at any time without forfeiture or ownership or control of any real or personal property owned by it.”

ARTICLE V OFFICERS

The officers of this Church shall be a Moderator, a Vice-Moderator, a Clerk and a Treasurer.

The Church Board shall be the representative governing body of the Church to carry out the policies adopted by the Church and to coordinate and direct the program and administration of the Church.

ARTICLE VI MEMBERSHIP

Section I Acceptance

The members of this Church shall be persons who have been admitted by vote of the Diaconate acting on behalf of the Church and by public acceptance of its covenant.

- a. On confession of faith and baptism (unless previously baptized)
- b. On presentation of satisfactory letters of transfer from other Churches; or
- c. If letters are not available, by reaffirmation of faith.

Section 2 Reception

New members, having been admitted by the Diaconate, shall be received at a communion service, or at some other time as determined by the Diaconate, by public assent to the covenant. Any who are unable to attend in public, shall be received by the Pastor and Diaconate acting on behalf of the Church.

Section 3 Responsibilities

- a. Members shall pledge themselves to attend the regular worship of the Church and the celebration of the Lord's Supper
- b. Members shall pledge themselves to lead a Christian life
- c. Members shall share in the life and work of the Church
- d. Members shall contribute financially to its support and benevolences
- e. Members shall seek diligently the spiritual welfare of the community, membership, ministries, and committees of the Church
- f. Members must notify the Church upon any change of their membership status.
- g. Members are welcome to attend any and all open meetings of ministries and committees

Section 4 Membership Status

A. Transfer

Any member who desires a letter of transfer to another Church, upon request from that Church, is entitled to receive a letter of transfer from the Clerk of the Church, by vote of the Diaconate. In emergency or urgent cases, when the Diaconate cannot meet in a timely manner, the Clerk may issue a form of transfer as he/she deems appropriate. This form shall be valid as recommendation for one year only from its date, unless renewed. This restriction shall be stated in the form. The membership shall be terminated when a transfer is accepted. General letters will not be sent unless requested by a Church.

B. Censorship or Termination

If a member persistently breaches the covenant of this Church, the Diaconate, after proper notification has been given and faithful efforts have been made to bring the person to reconciliation with the covenant of the Church, may call for a hearing at which time the Diaconate may censure the member or terminate the membership.

C. Inactive Status

Members whose addresses have long been unknown, or for a period of three years, in spite of kindly approaches, have not communicated with the Church or contributed to its support, may, by vote of the Diaconate, be transferred to an inactive list. From the date of such transfer to the inactive list, such persons shall cease to be reported on the active membership roll and shall forfeit their rights to vote and will forfeit all rights and privileges of membership. An inactive member cannot receive a letter of transfer (recommendation) as the member has been inactive. The Clerk shall issue a statement that the member has been an inactive member of the Church.

D. Reinstatement

Any person whose membership has been classified under subsection 4b, 4c, or 4d may have that membership reinstated when in compliance with section 3.
